

One of the big questions we are asking during British Science Week is:

What do plants need to grow?

To help find out the answer, we would like you to enter our fabulous

Sunflower Growing Competition

To enter, simply register below, collect your seeds and get growing!

The competition will be judged in the final term (full details to follow) with prizes awarded for the tallest sunflower.

I would like to enter the sunflower growing competition

Name.....

Class.....

Signature of parent/guardian.....